

Murray's Mahvelous Movies: I've included the important quotes to look for during the movie, if there is one.

Fun Movies:

Down Periscope - Kelsey Grammar. Funny without being stupid.

Wedding Singer – Adam Sandler And, yes, this IS what the 80's were like.

Galaxy Quest – Tim Allen Even better if you watched the old Star Trek series, but good, nonetheless.

Mars Attacks! – lots of famous people. This is the world's greatest B-Movie. Watch it when you are ready for goofy fun.

Attach of the Killer Tomatoes – the really old one. (Not really one of mine, but I'm told you gotta see this.)

Favorites:

The Adventures of Robin Hood (1938) – Errol Flynn – The original and by far still the best.

Hunt for Red October – Sean Connery – One of the best movies ever. If I run into it on the TV I can't turn away.

Tombstone – Western. Really good. "I'm your Huckleberry!"

The Green Mile – Tom Hanks. "He a bad man, boss."

Unforgiven – Clint Eastwood

Classics: (What?! You have seen these?)

Back to the Future I and III (unfortunately you kinda need to see #II, but it isn't very good) – Michael J. Fox and Christopher Lloyd

Indian Jones Trilogy – Harrison Ford

Raiders of the Lost Ark – Awesome!

Temple of Doom – skip it, just OK

Last Crusade – with Sean Connery "He chose poorly."

Star Wars

Star Trek: some are better than others

Star Trek II: Wrath of Khan

Star Trek IV: The Voyage Home

Star Trek VI: The Undiscovered Country

First Contact – Best of the Next Generation group fighting the Borg

James Bond!!! – So many movies, but these are the best.

Sean Connery as Bond – "Dr. No!" | "From Russia with Love" (hot girl-next-door bond girl) | "You Only Live Twice"

Roger Moore as Bond – "Spy who Loves Me" | "Live and Let Die" (check out young Jane Seymour!) | "For Your Eyes Only"

George Lazenby as Bond "On Her Majesty's Secret Service" (not the best, but he's a pretty good Bond)

Timothy Dalton as Bond – "Living Daylights" (Awesome and one of my favorite Bond girls [the Russian cellist])

Pierce Brosnan as Bond – "GoldenEye" (one of the all time best Bond films)

Daniel Craig as Bond – “Casino Royal” and “Quantum of Solace” (pretty good, but a complete reset. You have to watch them together for “Quantum” to make sense.)

Movies for Guys: (And I don't mean action movies.) Girls will probably like these, but guys will really get them.

A River Runs Through It – Brad Pitt

Second Hand Lions – Michael Cane and Robert Duvall. These are the uncles we all wish we had.

Saving Private Ryan – Tom Hanks. Came out same time as “Titanic”. Guys went to Private Ryan multiple times, girls to Titanic.

Gran Torino – Clint Eastwood.
